IRONICAL COMPLIMENTS. Under the head of "An Honest Showing" the Virginia Enterprise is pleased to compliment the Democracy of Nevada on the alleged lukewarmness with which it supports Greeley and Brown, and then goes on to depreciate the character and standing of the Presidential Electors chosen by the Nevada Democracy. "These gentlemen," the Enterprise says, "comprise the significant triangle: The base an ex-rebel, the perpendicular a Democrat, the hypothenuse a Liberal Republican. Under such a figure upon the banner of a party no inscription is required; no platform needed." Very true, Mr. Enterprise, none is needed; for | ence which the traveling public will not upon your own showing the movement is a spontaneous uprising among men of all parties to rid the country of the odious tyranny which has degraded the Republican party into a mere political machine to subserve the personal desires of one man, and seeks through its agency to place the whole country graveling at the feet of a military dictator. This danger, so imminent, has caused good. The town has delly stage communication citizens of all classes, irrespective of former differences or party predilections. to band together to stay the American Republic in its downward progress to Imperialism. They wish for the nation to be a Republic not merely in name, but ton for the accommodation of travel in fact. They desire to extirpate the foul corruption which is sapping the lifeblood of a constitutional form of government. They are also determined to put a period to the wicked tyranny which has permitted the Southern States to become the prey of the plunderer until the come the prey of the plunderer until the diste steps to put on such a line with all oppression and wrong has become so possible celerity. glaring that the honest men of all parties blush for shame at the monstrous evil. To accomplish this praiseworthy purpose they support as their standard bearer a gentleman not so much on account of his political antecedents, but because the purity of his record for forty years bears witness that his future acts will be equally as free from the stain of corruption or dishonesty. The feeling that now pervades all true lovers of their country is that, above all things, an honest and incorruptible man is needed at the helm of national affairs to purge them from the foul and hideous corruption which has turned the government into a byward and reproach not only among the American people, but throughout the civilized world. The peril is great, the danger vast and menseing, and therefore men from all sections are hastening, despite their former political proclivities, to redeem the nation from this great and crying evil. So when the Liberal Republicans and the Democracy of the State of Nevada met in council and chose men from their midst who, however much they may have disagreed in the past on political matters, are now united in a common effort to restore to the government those principles of common honesty without which any system of governmental policy, no matter however wisely framed, must end in ruin and disaster. They have hastened to the rescue and showed their patriotism and wisdom by selecting men not on account of their former political leanings, but because they were sincere and faithful in the cause of the reform so greatly needed. Such being the laudable spirit that pervades the united Liberal Republicans and Democracy, no further platform is needed to be inscribed on their banner than that men of all conditions, from all parties, from all sections, have joined together for the preservation of the country and to signify that honesty must be the controlling principle of the government. That is their purpose; that is their motto; therefore they support Horace Greeley.

TOO BAD.

The Virginia Enterprise has gone out of its way to pass a slur upon our respected townsman Col. Lightner. One would have thought that the candidates for the electoral college where the duty to be performed is simply formal, would have been safe from attack-not so with the administration organs, who nearly all make it their nasty duty to assail all who do not support Grant. In the present instance this superserviciable zeal will surely fail in its object. Col. Lightner is a gentleman, honored and esteemed by all who know him. At the present time he is filling a most important and responsible position as superintendent of one of the principal mining companies on this coast. In this capacity his integrity and ability have won the confidence of the company whom he represents, while his good-heartedness and unassuming manners have elicited the regard and good will of all with whom his business brings him in contact. We say this not because Col. Lightner's career or charecter needs vindication at our hands, but affords us an opportunity to express our high opinion of a gentleman to whom Pioche owes much of her present prosperity, and we are sure these feelings are shared by the great mass of the inhabitants of Pioche.

DAILY STAGE NEEDED.

The desire for a daily stage line between Hamilton and this city has been expressed time and again through the columns of this paper and by prominent citizens. The present line has been inadequate for many months, and the traveling public have protested against the inconvenience to which passengers have been subjected by traveling in overloaded stages, involving much discomfort and often vexatious delays. Promise after promise has been made to put on a daily line, but it seems as though the promise had no sooner allayed the popular desire than the project was abaudoned. The people will suffer long, but there are times when promises will not avail. Sixteen passengers arrived by the stage which reached here on Sunday evening -all being huddled into a vehicle designed for only ten passengers, to say nothing of the large quantities of baggage piled on top, in the boot and under the seats. This is an inconvenisubmit to. The rapid growth of Pioche, consequent upon the development of the mines of Ely District, is such that a daily line has become an absolute necessity, and a daily line to Hamilton the people are determined to have. From a small and comparatively unknown camp three years ago, Pioche has increased until it is now the second town in the State. with Salt Lake City on the east, two lines of telegraph and two daily papers, and it is in accord with the eternal fitness of things, that there should be a daily stage line between here and Hamilbetween this city and points to the west. It being very clear that a daily line in opposition to the present line would prove remunerative to those who might embark in it as a business enterprise, it has finally been determined by some of our citizens that they will take imme-

The San Francisco Bulletin says that of the award of $15,500,000 assessed against Great Britain for damages in the Alabama claims, that $11,200,000 is the actual sum assessed for damages, and the remainder is made up of interest calculated at 6 per cent, per annum.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

This body met at Reno on the 25th. and adjourned the same day, after making nominations for State offices. Judge Wren, of White Pine, was chosen Charman over T. D. Edwards, of Ormsby. The platform adopted by the Convention is as follows.

Resolved, That we heartly inderse the resolutions and platform adopted at the Phihadelphia Convention and the candidates there nominated, and pledge our united efforts to secure their election. Resolved. That the Republican party of the State of Nevada recognizes to-day that the safety of the country demands the indorsement of the National Adminstration, which has scaled a prace under which the country has been prosperous beyond all precedent; the public credit placed upon a basis gratifying to all citi-zens: the debt gradually moiting away; the rates of taxation reduced; the good will of the nations assured, and our commercial relations extending daily into new fields.

Resolved, That a proper regard for the future of the commonwealth requires that the title in the public lands be carefully guarded, hereaft r, as the rightful heritage of the people, and that the Republican party hereby pledges itself to oppose the squandering of the lands in the interest of corporations.

Resolved, That the Republican party, the party of the people, all its impulses springing from, all its sympathies contering in the people, stands unalterably opposed to all encroachments of monopolies upon the MIGHTS of the people.

Resolved. That we recognize an in-terminable struggle between capital and labor; that while we guarantee to the former the protection to which it is justly entitled, our sympathies are with the latter; and that we pledge to the workingmen an carnest support in all attempts to resist unjust encroachments, to obtain a recognition of their rights, and to secure a betterment of their condition.

Resolvdd, That at a time when the wise men of all sections see the danger of taking up a blind pilot in a stormy night, it behooves the Republican party in "the battle-born State" to stand by the old cause and strain every effort in support of the leader whose triumph is

'safety to-day and salvation to-morrow.' The nomination for Justice of the Supreme Court was first made. Thos, D. Hawley, of White Pine, received 40 votes to 39 for J. F Lewis, the present Chief Justice, and the nomination of Hawley was declared unanimous. The four votes of Lincion county were given to Hawley.

C. C. Goodwin of Lander was nominated by acclamation for Conrgress. He at first declined, but was prevailed upon to accept.

For State printer C. A. V. Putman, of the Virginia Enterprise, received 45 votes to 35 for Wm B. Taylor, of the Elko Independent. The Lincoln county delegation votes for Taylor.

John H. Mills of Storey, Andrew J. Hatch of Washoe, and James W. Haines of Douglas were, under a suspension of the rules, nominated Presidential Electors by acclamation.

For Alternate Electors W. J. Forbes of White Pine, Dr. J. C. Hazlett of Lyon ed to.

and John D. Treat of Elko were nominby acclamation.
